ACTION: Notice of delegation and redelegation of authority regarding the civil rights related program requirements (CRRPR's) of HUD programs.

SUMMARY: In the delegation portion of this notice, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development is delegating to the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity the power and authority to make decisions regarding the civil rights related requirements of HUD programs. In the redelegation section of this notice, the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity redelegates this authority to the Director, Program Operations and Compliance Center, for each field office.

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 8, 1995.

Pearl, Director, Office of Program Standards and Evaluation, telephone (0) 708-088, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street, SW, Washington, DC 0410. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Due to the importance the Department places upon civil rights enforcement, the Department is making structural changes to help ensure that recipients under HUD programs comply with all civil rights related program requirements (also referred to as "CRRPRs"). This restructuring fits in with the overall HUD field reorganization intended to improve HUD's performance and provide HUD's customers—members of the public and program beneficiaries—more efficient service and less bureaucracy. The changes which shall be implemented pertain to how the Department, and the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO), ensure that each party receiving federal financial assistance or other benefit, as a result of participation in a HUD program, complies with all civil rights related program requirements (CRRPRs) of the particular program. In order to receive benefits, it is essential that participants in HUD programs comply with the relevant CRRPRs.

It is easy to identify the civil rights related program requirements for a particular program, but more difficult to provide a general definition to encompass all CRRPRs. Depending upon the particular program, there are different sources which identify the CRRPRs. For example, civil rights related program requirements may be written into the statute or regulations governing the specific program at issue.

Delegation and Redelegation of Authority

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary; Office of the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO), HUD.

CRRPRs may also be found within such sources as general civil rights statutes, HUD Notices of Funding Availability (NOFAs), and Mortgage Letters. The subjects covered under CRRPRs include but are not limited to such topics as affirmative fair housing marketing, site and neighborhood standards, assurances or certifications of compliance with civil rights statutes, and monitoring recipient performance for compliance with civil rights requirements.

In the past, the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, including the FHEO field staff, played a largely advisory role in regard to the impact of CRRPRs. In reviewing a HUD program application, the FHEO field staff would simply advise the HUD program staff in the field whether an applicant was in compliance with the CRRPRs. In the event of disagreement between the FHEO staff and program staff regarding the applicant's compliance with CRRPRs, the Regional Administrator or Area Manager for the particular office would make the final decision to resolve the issue.

Because the field reorganization has eliminated the positions of Regional Administrator and Area Manager, there is no one in the field offices to resolve such disagreements. Consequently, there is concern that compliance with CRRPRs will not be adequately considered. However, the Secretary has concluded that it is most important that HUD program funds and other benefits are given to applicants who comply with civil rights related program requirements of HUD programs. This can be accomplished by giving additional specific authority to the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, at Headquarters, and to each Director, Program Operations and Compliance Center, in the field, in determining the status of applicants for or recipients of federal financial assistance or other benefits with respect to civil rights related program requirements. Clearly, the function of the Office of FHEO is to ensure compliance with civil rights requirements. This responsibility is accomplished not only by having the Office of FHEO administer and enforce civil rights statutes such as the Fair Housing Act, but also by having the Office of FHEO participate in decision making regarding compliance with the civil rights component of each HUD program.

This change in no way relieves HUD program staff of their obligation to be attentive to civil rights concerns in the administration of HUD programs, as reflected in section D of this delegation. It is designed solely to assure that serious FHEO issues are thoroughly considered before programmatic decisions are made.

This change also does not affect the rating process for competitive grant applications. The rating process often includes items of FHEO concern, such as commitments under section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, or past experience in administering housing with inclusive racial and ethnic patterns. FHEO staff usually rate those criteria and provide the ratings to field program staff. Nothing in this delegation would allow FHEO to challenge the award of competitive assistance based on the program office's assessment of non-FHEO factors.

Accordingly, the Secretary delegates, and the Assistant Secretary for FHEO redelegates, authority as follows:

Section A. Authority Delegated

The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development delegates to the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, the power and authority to determine whether an applicant for, or participant in, a HUD program is complying with the civil rights related program requirements (CRRPRs). CRRPRs are requirements of HUD programs relating to civil rights contained in laws and regulations pertaining to the particular program, general civil rights statutes, Notices of Funding Availability (NOFA's), Mortgage Letters or by other agreement between the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity and the Assistant Secretary who has been delegated authority over the particular program.

Section B. Authority Redelegated

The Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity retains the authority delegated from the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, pursuant to Section A., above, and redelegates it to each Director, Program Operations and Compliance Center, for the field office over which he or she has responsibility.

Section C. No Authority To Redelegate

The authority granted pursuant to Section B., above, may not be further redelegated pursuant to this delegation and redelegation.

Section D. Authority Excepted From Redelegation

In the event that the Director, Program Operations and Compliance Center, and the Field office program official who has been redelegated authority to make funding decisions are not able to agree on the status of an applicant or participant with respect to a CRRPR, the matter shall be forwarded to Headquarters and the decision shall be made jointly by the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity and the Assistant Secretary who has been delegated authority over the particular program. In the event the two Assistant Secretaries are unable to agree, the matter shall be resolved by the Secretary.

Authority: Sec. 7(d), Department of Housing and Urban Development Act [42 U.S.C. 3535(d)].

Dated: March 8, 1995.

Roberta Achtenberg,

Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity.

Henry G. Cisneros,

Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.
